Instructions and Nomination form

ABOUT THE AWARD

The South Atlantic Center for Veterans Education and Training, Inc. (SACVET) and The American Legion, 3RD District Auxiliary pays tribute to female veterans! Over the years, military females have demonstrated true personal courage as they have broken barriers and paved the way for future females to serve as leaders, not only in the military but in all areas of society.

The SACVET and The American Legion, 3RD District Auxiliary Female Veteran of The Year Award recognizes female veterans who have completed a record of exemplary service as a military service member, veteran and outstanding member of the community.

The award is part of SACVET and The American Legion, 3RD District Auxiliary ongoing effort to take female Veterans issues out to where female veterans live, work, enjoy the freedoms of our great country and to encourage greater participation in the SACVET's Annual Female Veteran's Stand Down.

NOMINATION FOR THE AWARD

There will be one annual award for SACVET and The American Legion, 3RD District Auxiliary Female Veteran of the Year. The Female Veterans Coordination Committee will select the recipient. The selection criteria focuses on the nominee's achievements in the military, in Veteran's affairs and her commitment to female veteran issues.

The nomination form must be received by the end of April 19, 2014. The form can be mailed or email to award@gcvret.org detailing why the veteran is being nominated for the award. The nomination narrative may not exceed 500 words in length. Nomination form that are not selected may be retained for future award consideration at the discretion of the committee.

Nomination form is available on the SACVET's website www.gcvret.org or you can contact the Female Veteran Coordinator at:
